Dear Class of 2012,

If there is one thing I have learned over the past four years, it's that in high school you spend a majority of your time looking forward to the next big thing. Whether it was banquet, prom, or graduation, we were always looking to what came next, and in the process, we would sometimes forget to enjoy the moment. In middle school we were all rearing to get to high school. Then, four years ago we finally walked into Franklin High School for the first day of school. We were nervous and hesitant and had no idea what the next four years were going to bring. We put our best foot forward just hoping we wouldn't get lost in this new scary place that was Franklin High. However, within a couple of weeks we knew our way around and realized our classes weren't as hard as we had thought they would be. Being separated into wings forced many of us to make new friends, and in some cases grow distant from others. We tried out for different sports teams, worried about whether or not we would get cut. We became panthers and our schedules were soon full of either cheering on different teams or playing on them. At the end of the year, the next countdown began. Three more years and we could sit at the windows in the cafeteria. Three more years and we would get the good lockers in main hall instead of being stuck in the upstairs of some wing, three more years and we would be out of here.

Sophomore year came along and we were no longer at the bottom of the food chain. We may not have been upperclassmen yet, but at least we weren't freshmen. Sophomore year was the year to enjoy things before school got really tough. We tackled the MCAS for the last time and danced our hearts out at countless dances. We couldn't wait to be upperclassmen and even better seniors, just two more years.

When junior year came around and it began to sink in that we were upperclassmen and we were on the back end of high school, we had made it half way. We also began to realize that what we had been doing for the past couple of years mattered. We checked our GPAs, began visiting colleges, and started to think about life after Franklin High. Amidst thinking about what we would do with the rest of our lives we counted down to Prom, and worried about what we would wear and who we would share the night with, probably a little too much. And at the end of it all, we realized we had just one year left.

Finally, senior year came along and we were the ones running the school. We sat near the windows and enjoyed the convenience of main hall. We frantically applied to college, praying that at least one school would accept us. Then, our final countdown began, the countdown to graduation. Instead of years away, it was days away. When we started senior year it seemed like June would never come, but in the blink of an eye it was January and we were half way there. All too quickly the countdown went from four years, to four months, to four days. We had spent our whole lives wishing high school away and just like that it was over.

The end of high school brings mixed emotions but I hope that amidst it all you remember the memories this school will hold for us forever. The games we went to, the championships we won, the plays we were in, the dances we attended, and the friends we made. Even though the Franklin High we know may not be here in a few years, the memories we made are timeless and cannot be taken away. So Class of 2012 our countdown has finally come to an end. I hope you enjoyed the trip along the way, and that going forward in life you will carry the memories you made while at Franklin High School. Congratulations Class of 2012, we finally did it.

Senior Captains

We would like to thank all of our fans that supported us throughout the season. It's always great to look into the stands after a good play and see all your classmates cheering for your team. It was a difficult year, but it was still a very memorable one for us all. Football is a really hard sport to stick with because of the amount of dedication and energy that goes into a single season-let alone four years. Anyone who has ever played for the high school knows how much time and dedication football demands. For all the senior players: it was a great season guys, definitely our favorite season in the past four years. Underclassmen: work hard in the offseason like we all did and make your last few years count because they'll be your best. We wish all our senior players good luck in what they plan on doing after high school; we will always be here to help you guys. Congratulations on our last season guys. #84 Chris Barros, #21 Zach Beiler, #26 Kyle Bryson, #5 Tucker Deslauriers, #76 Dean Fish, #8 Russ Haddad, #99 Joe Harrington, #22 Dylan Lannon, #62 Joe McDonald, #39 Mike Miga, #25 Shane Olesen, #52 Zach Pisani, #27 Andrew Rock, #56 Andre Scott, #24 Brett Weaver, and #58 Paul Whalen.

CHEERLEADING

Girls,
 This year we faced every obstacle possible, and without doubt we can say we came together and worked through them. The talent on the team this year was outrageous, and we're fortunate to have shared a season with girls like you. We wish you success next year, and we love each one of you! And, remember if everyone does there part, you will achieve! "I will do my part!" xoxo

Ladies,

Well sadly, we kiss another year goodbye with all our Class of 2012. But this year doesn't disappear altogether. It will reside in our memories forever as the year we changed Franklin Field Hockey. We could make a mile-long list of all the goal markers we tore through this year, but we can just hit the highlights. We shattered a 32-year-old record of League Championship-less seasons and did so without so much as a blip on our Kelley-Rex record. We carried four Hock All-Stars, two Best-of-60 All-Stars, and a team of 20 outstanding girls who carried themselves all the way to the Division 1 South Sectional Semi-Final. WHICH we lost in DOUBLE OVERTIME, and to anyone that matters, we won that game too. This year was absolutely unreal, better than any season we could have ever dreamed of, (especially thanks to that infamous dog incident) and it is one we won't soon forget. Thank you all for an incredible senior season, and we will miss you like nothing else.

Love you all to pieces.

Signing off,
Bridget & Kady

This year, being a part of the cross country team meant being part of a family. Standing on the starting line, we knew that we were not running for ourselves, but for our teammates standing next to us. It has been an incredible four years, and it is something we will never forget. To all the underclassmen, you've already proven that you can do more than you ever thought possible. Ladies,

Thank you for making this the most memorable season of our adolescent lives. We spent our days counting the minutes until we got to see your beautiful, annoying faces at practice. We accomplished so much including winning the hock and we are so proud of you!! At times it felt we were too close to each other but we loved every second of it. You guys are all talented and special in your own way and we know you will continue to acheive your goals next year.

We had a determined group of guys who wanted to do nothing but play hockey for our school. Each and everyone of them put all their effort into improving their game which clearly showed by the end of the season. No matter what obstacle we faced as a team, we pushed through and prevailed in the end. We loved playing with you guys and will cherish these months we had as a family.

At the beginning of the season, we were an inexperienced team with a lot of holes, and after some tough losses it appeared that this season would not be as successful as we hoped. But after a few weeks of hard work we were able to turn it around. Everyone worked hard through out the practices, and did what they needed to in the meets. We had a really enjoyable season with some good memories. Good luck in the years to come, and win us another title.

This swim season has been one to remember. It has been our most successful year and I believe we grew much more as a team. The girl's team had their first win this year and to top it off, they won a second while they were at it. And the guys team had a whopping six wins this season, beating out teams such as OA that we thought we would never beat last year. We had some great new entries such as Chris Rich who was the fastest growing swimmer I've seen, coming up from so little to being a great swimmer. That's just what our team has done, from no wins our first year to ending off strongly our third, and we only have room to grow more. I bet next year will be even better and I'm proud to be a part of this team

Captains Letter

Thank you for a great indoor season. As captains it was a pleasure leading our team to a great year. This year we had one of our best records at 2-2 and 3rd in the Hock league championship. We would like to thank you all for a great year, and we look forward to the outdoor season.

Indoor Track

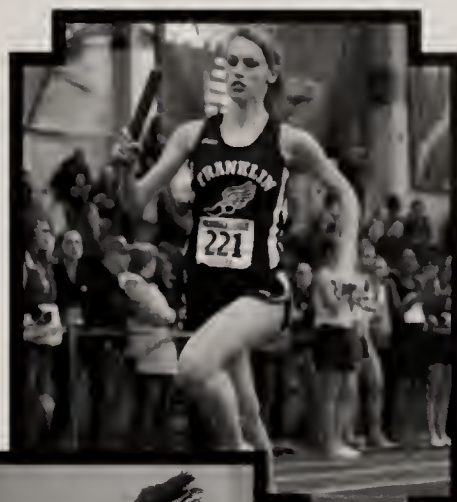

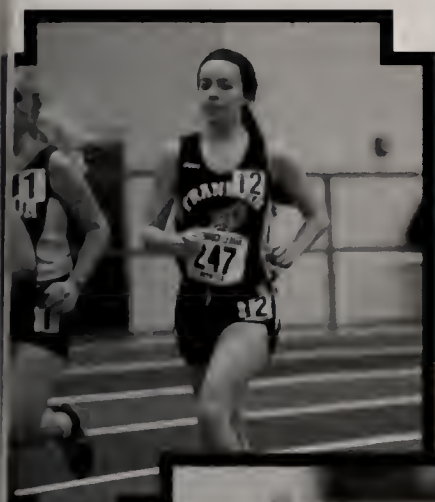

Track is not an easy sport. It takes heart, talent, dedication, and hard work. Luckily the 2012 indoor team had all of these qualities. Starting out this season, we had quite a few obstacles to overcome. Injuries and mental blocks were holding us back, keeping us from showing everyone how great we were. After a slow start, however, we were able to come back and take second at Hockomock Championships, winning the Kelly Rex division. Somewhere along the way beating personal, state, and meet records, we became a family. There are so many positive experiences that we can all take with us at the end of this year. The memories that we have will last us a lifetime, and as your captains we are so proud of everything that you have done. Thanks for such a great season and let's keep up the hard work into the spring season!

Captain's letter

This was a team of rookies, a team of young and inexperienced players. A team this inexperienced was not supposed to beat a dominating Attleboro team. A team this young was not suppose to upset their rivals at King Philip.

Nor was this team supposed to make it to the playoffs, but we did. I am proud of this team. I am proud of their effort that was put fourth every day. I want to thank the seniors for their leadership and dedication to this team. All I can say now is lets surprise everyone again next year.

Good job boys.

Captains' Letter

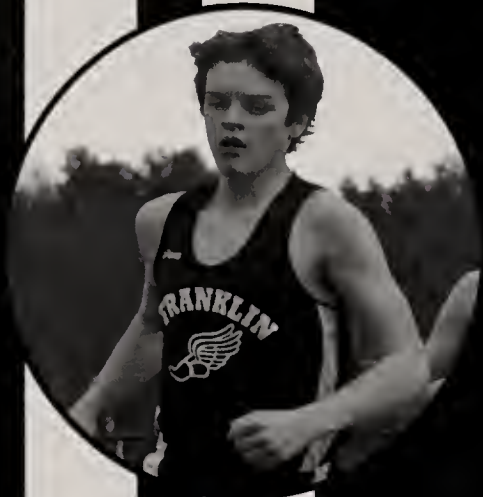

Although the FHS Girls' Tennis may not have seen that many wins this year, the season was still a success. The team added several new players this year and our united team quickly emerged in the first couple weeks of the season. Our starting team saw a dramatic change as several players that had not started in the past years stepped up to starting positions. The girls that did not get the chance to start in any matches continued to serve as a great support system to those that did. The strength of our team may not have shown in our record, but the strength in the bonds of our team has become even more valuable. We are sad to see our seniors leave but we still look forward to next year!

UNDERCLASSMEN

PHOTOBOOTH

Dear Class of 2012,

When I was a freshman, I never really understood what it was that made the seniors seem so different. Sure they were older, bigger, and took up main hall, but there was something else there that was never quite clear. Now we are those upperclassmen, and we have gone through a transformation without even realizing it, and what was it that changed us? It was four years of difficult classes, all nighters with your friends before that big test or essay, and everyone's favorite way to spend a Saturday morning—the SATs. It was winning Spirit Week for two years, prom, birthdays, praying for Fridays, and dreading Mondays. It was all of the failed attempts we had that have made us work harder, and all of the successful ones we are proud to remember.

Freshman year, we entered the high school with ideas—what we wanted to do, where we wanted to go, and who we wanted to become. Maybe your ideas haven't changed, or maybe during the last four years you've discovered an interest that could potentially shape your career, your activism, and your future. We've made friendships that will be lifelong—our common trials have strengthened our old relationships, and created new ones. As seniors, some of us still have our old ideas, but many of us have new ones as well. We have not completely transformed into the people we will be but we are well on our way.

It's amazing that such a short period of time can so drastically change our lives. Regardless of how we have felt about our four years, the people we've met and the things we've done have shaped and changed us. As we are preparing to leave Franklin High, there are some people who we should thank for helping us make it through. We owe a lot to the friends who have always been there for the late night study help and emotional support. To our teachers, who helped us find our way to class freshman year and now have helped us get into college. They have been there for guidance, pushed us to our limits, and taught some of our favorite classes. Everyone has had a teacher who has changed their life and helped them make it through this minefield called high school—so thank you. And finally, our class advisors Mr. Leighton and Mr. Penza, who for four years have been picking out the colors for the school dance and providing us with wonderful opportunities to make memories. Thank you all for helping us make it this far.

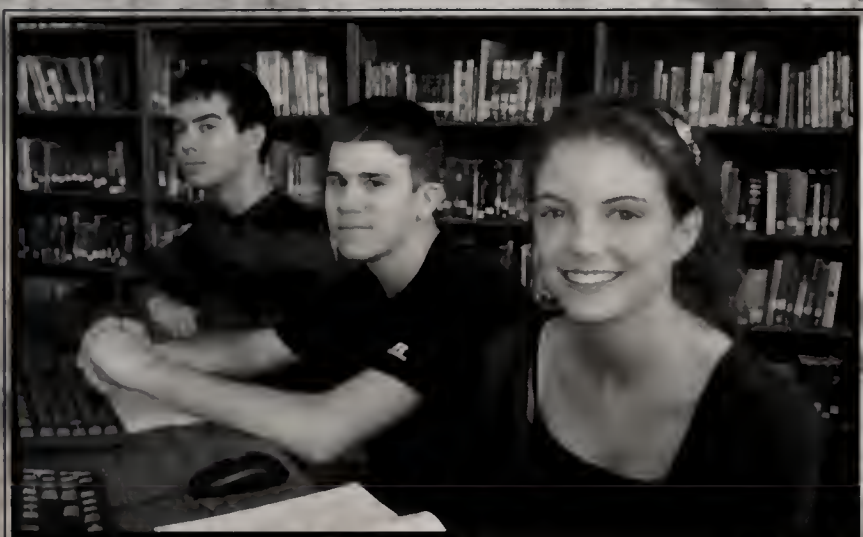

As class president, I just wanted to say thanks for the last four years. I've been inspired by the incredible talent in our class—I can't wait to see you all become actors, politicians, artists, athletes, engineers, musicians, and activists. Whether you have your future path completely planned out, or if you are still unsure about the direction of your future, just know that during the last four years you have acquired skills to help you get there. Good luck Class of 2012. On June 1st, we will be starting a new chapter in our lives. The high school that we spent our time in may be gone, but remember that the memories and people will stay with us.
